

BREAKFAST FOR LEARNING INVITES YOU TO AN EXCLUSIVE
GOURMET SAFARI TO MOROCCO

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 10th, 2006
WATERSTONE ESTATE & FARMS

Gourmet Safari to Morocco is a must attend event for those who have a passion for exotic travel, alluring flavours, and the finery of Moroccan life. This event promises to be a memorable experience – a celebration of food, family, and community.

Come travel first-class through the authentic cooking demonstrations and savour sumptuous food prepared by the chefs at Great Cooks on Eight. Sit back and listen to the rhythm of the belly dancer's cymbals.

Enjoy shopping at our silent auction and spoil yourself at the Bazaar reminiscent of the open-air markets found throughout Morocco piled high with rugs, pottery, spices and jewelry. You won't even have to go through customs to take your fabulous finds home with you!

Join us as WaterStone Estate & Farms is transformed into the quintessential Moroccan experience. Gather with your friends on the porch and sip fabulous wines as you marvel at the striking view of over 100-acres of meadow, forest and rolling hills.

This is your exclusive invitation to experience the ultimate Moroccan adventure while helping to feed and nurture children here in Canada.

As someone who sincerely cares about the well-being of children I am pleased to be the chair of this event. We can make a difference in the lives of children!

Sincerely,

Nourishing Canadian children is a serious challenge, one that begs to be addressed. But how? I sincerely believe that the quote from English playwright John Heywood shows the right direction: "Many hands make light work". I was intrigued to discover that this saying is also venerated in Morocco. How appropriate it is then to bring together "the many hands" of our caring community supporters for an evening of Moroccan food and culture.

As a member of the Canadian Living Editorial team that founded Breakfast For Learning, I am delighted to be honorary chair of Gourmet Safari to Morocco.

If my tasting trips to Morocco are any indication, the occasion promises to be as delicious as it will be celebratory.

Please accept this opportunity to lend your hands in support of child nutrition programs that nourish and nurture young bodies and minds.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Baird,
